Harold and Ella Mecham

Spotlight: Harold and Ella Mecham: Harold was born Oct. 14, 1914 in Wallsburg. He moved to Mountain Home (Duchesne County), then back to Heber City, and finally back to Wallsburg, when he and Ella married Oct. 6, 1954.

Harold worked as a school bus driver, and a sheepherder. He was a planing mill employee at Duchesne Tunnel and a Moon Lake dam employee, clearing lumber. After 27 years at Geneva Steel, he retired. Harold served 30 months in the South Pacific (Armed Forces), between Australia and the Philippines, during WWII.

Harold keeps busy now, working with his farm stock (sheep, cows)

Some say that Initiative is the best resolution: "He worked by day and toiled by night. He gave up play and all delight. Dry books he read, new things to learn. And forged ahead, success to earn. He plodded on with faith and pluck. And when he won, men called it luck.

Still others will tell you a Good Decision is the best resolution: I've come to learn that major decisions can't be forced. We must look ahead and have some vision. We need to ponder on things a little each day and not always be in the crisis of making major decisions on the spur of the moment. If we are looking ahead in life, we can see major problems coming down the road toward us from some considerable distance. Hopefully, by the time the problem meet us we are able, to take charge of the situation.

Sometimes a major decision will jump out at us from a side road and startle the wits out of us, but not very often. If we've already decided what we are going to do, even these encounters won't hurt (too much). Whatever resolution you decide to try this year, hope you will be successful!

This and That: The Daryl Gibb family went to Florida for the holidays. They visited Daryl's parents, who are serving an LDS Mission. (This is their third.)

Jessie McFadden, daughter of Irene Tisdale, is staying with her while husband, Bob, prepares to join the family from Pennsylvania as they move to Utah.

Betty Behrends son, Doug, and wife, Liz, children, Nathan, Tamara, Anne, and Benjamine, were here from Montana to visit during the holidays.

Laura Henline is at the Utah Valley Hospital. Well wishes for a speedy recovery.

Afton Shepherd (past resident of Wallsburg) is at Utah Valley Hospital following surgery.

Church News: New Visiting Teacher districts, and partners were announced at the visiting teaching orientation. Look forward to the change.
